CONTINUED FROM FRONT PAGE

Some nights later—

ARE ALL THE MEN IN POSITION, BORIS?

YES, ALL ARE READY. WE JUST WAIT THE SIGNAL.

AND THERE IT IS RIGHT, BORIS. YOU GET UNDER COVER TILL THE CAR STOPS.

ACHTUNG! HALT!

I HOPE HE STOPS OR WE’LL HAVE TO JUMP FOR IT.

OUT YOU COME, GENERAL. YOU’VE JUST BEEN TAKEN PRISONER.

WE’LL USE THE CAR AS FAR AS WE CAN. YOU KNOW WHAT WILL HAPPEN, GENERAL, IF YOU TRY TO CALL OUT!

HURRY, MAN, HURRY! THE GENERAL MUST NOT BE DELAYED.

SORRY, HERR KAPITAN!

WE MUST GET AS FAR AWAY AS WE CAN BEFORE DAWN. THE ISLAND WILL BE ABLE WITH GERMANS LOOKING FOR US.

YES, YOU FOOLS, AND THEY WILL FIND YOU, THEN IT WILL BE MY TURN TO LAUGH!

The Germans scoured the island. For three weeks the party just managed to keep ahead of them, then the night of May 14th—

HURRY, MAN, HURRY! THE GENERAL MUST NOT BE DELAYED.

SORRY, HERR KAPITAN!

WE MUST GET AS FAR AWAY AS WE CAN BEFORE DAWN. THE ISLAND WILL BE ABLE WITH GERMANS LOOKING FOR US.

YES, YOU FOOLS, AND THEY WILL FIND YOU, THEN IT WILL BE MY TURN TO LAUGH!

One of the most impudent and daring raids of the war had been a complete success—the commander of a German-occupied island being whisked away to a prisoner of war camp from the midst of his own garrison.

NEXT WEEK: The Li Wo was only an old river boat—but the Japs learned that she could fight!